Planning Application – Kelk Chapel Ref: 02/03631/PLF

After a long discussion on the planning application, it was decided to object to the application on the grounds that it is taking away last meeting place in the village as Chestnut Horse Inn now closed. Also stating that the drains for chapel are a concern because soakaway not far from building and water could get to next door neighbours' property or into footing of Chapel. Also, a letter to be sent Rev R Teal - Driffield Methodist Chapel, stating that the Parish Council feel they have been unfairly blamed for lack of congregation and use of Chapel because we objected to first planning application.
